Historic Aerial Photograph Collections

United States Geological Survey aerial photograph files [graphic], 1952-1959, Ohio Department of Transportation. Notes: The call number of this photograph collection is State Archives Series 2731 AV. The collection is housed as P 198 with the audiovisual collections in the Ohio Historical Society. This collection contains original black and white aerial photographic prints of Ohio taken by the United States Geological Survey (USGS). Location: OHS Archives/Library. Call No.: State Archives Series 2731 AV. Copy#: 4177- 4236

Oblique aerial photographs [graphic], 1949-1971, Ohio Department of Transportation. Notes: Oblique aerial photos are taken with a hand-held camera through the airplane window. Most photos are identified by two numbers representing the flight and negative number. A brief description of the project or location is usually listed. This record series consists of black and white photographs (9x9) pertaining to the design and construction of the state route and interstate highway system. The series includes oblique aerial photographs of the major construction projects in Ohio, including interstates 70, 71, and 75. There are detailed photographs of major cities, including Toledo, Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati, Youngstown, and Dayton. Location: OHS Archives/Library. Call No. State Archives Series 2924 AV.

Maps
