Ohio Village Exposition

Entertainment for all Ages

Attention residents of Ohio Village! This Saturday our town will present the first annual Ohio Village Exposition. There will be many sights and experiences to be had as we look to the future and we welcome both residents and visitors of all ages to take part in the many wonders to be presented. Some of the highlights of this spectacle will include an "Exhibition Hall" featuring the latest technology and a look into the future. This will be a chance to see what the 20th century holds for us all. There will be a flea circus, although you are cautioned not to take any of the performers home with you. There will also be can-can dancers, a magic show, musicians, and artisans showing and selling their wares. As an added attraction our own village Muffins will be demonstrating their base ball skills on Muffin Field at 2 on the clock. This will be a Club Match and should be fun for all ages.

Birth of a New Game

Dr. James Naismith, a physical education professor and instructor at the International Young Men's Christian Association Training School (YMCA) in Springfield, Massachusetts, USA, has invented an entirely new indoor game using a soccer ball and two peach baskets as goals (Basketball) while trying to keep his gym class active on a rainy day. His Original set of rules are listed below:

- 1.) The ball may be thrown in any direction with one or both hands.
- 2.) The ball may be batted in any direction with one or both hands.
- 3.) A player cannot run with the ball. The player must throw it from the spot on which he catches it, allowance to be made for a man running at good speed.
- 4.) The ball must be held in or between the hands; the arms or body must not be used for holding it.
- 5.) No shouldering, holding, striking, pushing, or tripping in any way of an opponent. The first infringement of this rule by any person shall count as a foul; the second shall disqualify him until the next basket is made or, if there was evident intent to injure the person, for the whole of the game. No substitution shall be allowed.
- 6.) A foul is striking at the ball with the fist, violation of rules three and four and such described in rule five.

More Leisure Time for All

The lives of many Americans are becoming compartmentalized with clear distinctions between work and leisure that has not existed in the past. The change has produced a search for new forms of recreation and entertainment. In the past, few Americans considered leisure a valuable thing. On the contrary, many equated it with laziness or sloth. "Rest" as in the relative inactivity many Americans used to consider appropriate for the Sabbath, was valued because it offered time for spiritual reflection and preparation for work. Time spent amusing oneself in non-productive pursuits was not only unavailable to most Americans, but faintly scorned. With industrialization, times have changed. It is now possible for people to imagine leisure time as a normal part of our lives. Industrial workers, in pursuit of shorter hours, have adopted the slogan "Eight hours for work, eight hours for rest, and eight hours for what we will." Americans have begun to look for new ways to entertain themselves. Entertainment has become more public with people going "out" for fun.

7.) If either side makes three consecutive fouls, it shall count a goal for the opponents (consecutive means without the opponents in the meantime making a foul).

8.) A goal shall be made when the ball is thrown or batted from the ground into the basket and stays there (without falling), providing those defending the goal do not touch or disturb the goal. If the ball rests on the edges, and the opponent moves the basket, it shall count as a goal.

9.) When the ball goes out of bounds, it shall be thrown into the field and played by the first person touching it. In case of dispute the umpire shall throw it straight into the field. The thrower-in is allowed five seconds. If he holds it longer, it shall go to the opponent. If any side persists in delaying the game, the umpire shall call a foul on that side.

10.) The umpire shall be the judge of the men and shall note the fouls and notify the referee when three consecutive fouls have been made. He shall have power to disqualify people according to Rule 5.

11.) The referee shall be judge of the ball and shall decide when the ball is in play, in bounds, to which side it belongs, and shall keep the time. He shall decide when a goal has been made and keep account of the baskets, with any other duties that are usually performed by a scorekeeper.

12.) The time shall be two fifteen-minute halves, with five minutes rest between.

13.) The side making the most points in that time is declared the winner.

Such entertainment includes going to amusement parks, movies at the lavish palaces, and spectator sports. Professional sports like baseball and boxing are now thriving. The new college sport of football has been a big hit too. A more genteel form of entertainment of course has always been the theater. Now we are seeing the emergence of musical theater and vaudeville. No matter your tastes or the class of society you occupy, as leisure time increases with the development of many labor-saving devices, we are now all looking for ways to fill that space in our lives that we call leisure time.

Croquet Tournament Results

A hotly contested match on the village green had these results:
1st place—Mr. Bill Wurst
2nd place—Mr. Anthony Gibbs, Jr.
3rd place—Miss Edith MacEwan

The Ideal Menu

Breakfast—Oatmeal, sugar and cream, pork chops, fried potatoes, rolls, coffee.

Luncheon—Curry of veal, corn cakes, grape jam, plain cake, tea.
Dinner—Tomato soup, roast chicken, mashed potatoes, spaghetti with tomato sauce, peas (canned), crackers, olives, chocolate layer cake, coffee.

Tips for farmers--Don't cultivate (farm) any more land than you absolutely have to, which means better cultivation and less land.

If the wood pile is getting low--which should not be the case--you know that you will not have time to haul wood in the summer. In tests with Irish potatoes, deep planting with level culture yielded 254 bushels per acre, and shallow planting with hill culture gave a yield of 224 bushels.

So long as sawdust remains at the top of the ground it is alright as a mulch for strawberries, but if it gets into the ground it may sour and be injurious.

"Yet across the gulf of space, minds that are to our minds as ours are to those of the beasts that perish, intellects vast and cool and unsympathetic, regarded this earth with envious eyes, and slowly and surely drew their plans against us."

— H. G. Wells (1898), The War of the Worlds

The War of the Worlds

by H.G. Wells

Now Available in America.

The War of the Worlds is a science fiction novel by English author H. G. Wells first serialized in 1897 in England by Pearson's Magazine and in the US by Cosmopolitan magazine. This is the novel's first appearance in hardcover. It is a story that details a conflict between mankind and an extraterrestrial race. The novel is the first-person narrative of both an unnamed protagonist in Surrey and of his younger brother in London as southern England is invaded by Martians. The first book details the coming of the Martians and the second book tells how the Earthlings try to survive under the Martians. The book is classified as a scientific romance, like Wells' earlier novel The Time Machine, and promises to be just as popular.

School Board Invests in Our Youth

Two Sets of McGuffey Readers purchased.

Fifth and Sixth Grade Readers (set of 30 each).

Cost is $2/set.

The school board has made a major purchase to insure the continued high-quality education of the young people of our fair community. The books will be available for the start of the next school year in November.

William McGuffey was born in Pennsylvania, but spent most of his life as a renowned educator in Ohio. While serving at Ohio University and later at Woodward College in Cincinnati he went about the process of publishing his first readers. McGuffey's purpose in the readers was to lay the foundation of correct spelling, pronunciation, and usage. The finest literature in the English language was introduced to children, at levels they could understand. Through such literature the children are instilled with ethical principles and moral precepts. They learn the dignity of labor, the virtues of thrift, honesty, and charity, and the doctrine of fair play.

We are lucky to have school board members with the foresight to acquire this type of educational tool for use in our village school.

Things To Ponder

Atheism is a non-profit organization.

If man evolved from apes and monkeys, why do we still have apes and monkeys?

What if there were no hypothetical questions?

Is there another word for synonym?

One nice thing about egotists: They don't talk about other people.

How is it possible to have a civil war?

If you try to fail, and succeed, which have you done?

Can an atheist get insurance against acts of God?

Gathered by telegraph from all parts of the state.

Cincinnati--Thomas W. Keene, the actor, died in hospital. Mr. Keene recently underwent an operation of appendicitis. His constitution was not the sort to defend itself against appendicitis, for it had been weakened by two attacks of paralysis.

Marietta-- A gas generator connected with the residence of John Young exploded with terrific force, setting fire to and partially destroying the house. Miss Annie Young, aged 20 years and two negro domestics were frightfully burned.

Columbus--Capt. Stephen B. Porter, a veteran Ohio newspaperman is dead, aged 61. For more than 20 years he was connected with the Evening Dispatch, having been editor-in-chief for a long period, and was at his desk until within two days of his death. He saw service in the Second O.V.I in the war of the rebellion and was also on Gen. Thomas' staff. A widow and three children survive him.

Lima--David Huggett has brought suit against the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton and the Pan-Handle roads for $25,000 damages for injuries received while bringing a horse from Knightstown, Ind., to this city. He was in the car with the horse. One of the car doors was knocked off and hit him on the head, fracturing his skull. He has been unable to speak since the affair, his vocal organs being paralyzed.

School Absence Humor

Dear Teacher: Please excuse Jimmy for being, it was his father's fault.

Dear Sir: Please excuse Jason for being absent yesterday. He had a cold and could not breed well.

Dear Mr. Thomas: Maryann was absent yesterday because she had a fever and upset stomach. Her sister was also sick and her brother had a fever. I wasn't too well either. There must be something going around. Her father even got hot last night.

Celebrating 50 Years of Ohio Village

This year, we want to take time to reflect on the past 50 years of history in Ohio Village, and all the wonderful memories and experiences that have come about in that time. Ohio Village has welcomed so many amazing visitors over the years, and each one has made the village experience unique and special. We have also been fortunate to showcase many artisans and craftspeople who have brought their amazing talents to our small village. We have seen many new faces, events, and even buildings pop up in the last 50 years. One thing that has remained constant is the unyielding dedication of our village volunteers who, without, we would not be the same. As you visit Ohio Village this year, we encourage you to experience as much as you can. Reflect on the past, engage with those in the present, and look forwards towards the future, as there are many exciting things to come in the next 50-year chapter of Ohio Village! We hope to see you on July 27th for Founders Day to celebrate the anniversary of Ohio Village with much fanfare!
